Andrew: i have a windows computer now Andrew: I can play deus ex me: good game, bra me: also you can download the convenient new Daggerfall package me: with 500 percent fewer bugs Andrew: daggerfall?
Andrew: its 2011
Andrew: get your shit together, man me: NO me: I was playing Oblivion again, game's all gay me: oh, also Andrew: yeah - fucking 3rd dimension me: been playing Minecraft me: online me: on PvP faction servers me: now that's some cool stuff me: new update coming soon, too Andrew: NO SHIT
me: and they've got pistons now Andrew: I told you months ago to mplay minecraft and you laughed me: no I didn't Andrew: the new version has villages and npcs me: I bought Minecraft like a year ago me: yeah, saw new video me: so, you should play Minecraft online with me, we can start a little faction and build mechanical whatnots me: and defend our mechanical whatnots from 16-year-olds with ADHD Andrew: story of my life me: upper management's that bad, eh?
Andrew: users are that bad me: YOU SHOULD READ THAT COMIC STRIP DILBERT Andrew: HOLY SHIT IS IT ABOUT THE DRUDGERY OF CORPORATE SOFTWAARE DEVELOPMENT?
me: oh, also me: you need to be reading Redstate.com again me: keeping up with the feuds me: apparently Rick Perry is too pro-Islamic for some people

Andrew: rick perry willd efinitely win the nomination me: because he may have ok'd an educational program that somewhere in its 300 pages says nice things about Islam me: seriously me: Pam Geller says so me: and then that sparked a massive blog-o-fight Andrew: not sure why they are even voting me: well, keep in mind, man me: Giuliani was going to win the 2008 nomination me: and so was Romney me: and McCain was supposedly doomed me: things happen me: I'd say he's most likely, yeah, but just keep that in mind Andrew: you're right, of course Andrew: but given no upset news flashes Andrew: or massive media bumbles me: but, yeah, Minecraft Andrew: Who's his running mate? he's already cozied himself a bit with teapartiers Andrew: so he doesnt need bachmann unfortunately me: well, he might end up needing her me: if there ends up being bad blood me: like with Obama making Clinton VP me: OR CHRISTINE O'DONNELL Andrew: that would be interesting Andrew: the bad blood part me: the bad blood is inevitable and already going down Andrew: except people have been predicting a GOP schism for a decade Andrew: and the clinton fallout turned out to be hot air me: yep
me: but it does have a long enough effect to lower turnout among a party me: hence why Obama might have lost had he not made Clinton his VP me: you remember how fucking angry those Clinton people were Andrew: to quote an old favorite me: yes
me: I know me: AND FOR WHAT?
Andrew: obama would have to be caught in bed with a dead girl or live boy to lose me: oh me: AN INADEQUATE BLACK MALE? me: THAT'S NOT MY AMERICA me: I WILL NOT SHUT MY MOUTH Andrew: THATS NOT EVEN MEXICO me: I'M TIRED OF SHUTTING MY MOUTH me: nice
